YUGOSLAV ADMINISTRATION FOR ECONOMIC AND TECHNICAL AID

On 20 May 1953, the Federal Executive Council issued the following Decree on the Organization and Work of the Administration for Economic and Technical Aid (Uprava za ekonomski i tehnicku pomoc):

1. In cooperation with other agencies, proposes to the Federal Executive Council programs for economic and technical aid received from other countries and given to other countries.
2. In conformance with international agreements, organizes the execution of the program of economic and technical aid, distributes the aid received in agreement with the program, and organizes the sale of goods received as aid.
3. Issues technical and other regulations governing the utilization of such aid.
4. Supervises the utilization of aid.
5. Supervises indebtedness and takes care of payments in dinar equivalents for all goods and transportation costs financed by the aid.
6. Keeps accounts of the expenditure of aid and financial activities involved in maintaining foreign specialists.
7. Organizes the reception and the distribution of foreign specialists, as well as the departure of Yugoslav specialists abroad.
8. Discharges all duties connected with economic and technical aid placed under its jurisdiction.

The Administration is managed by a Director, who is appointed by the Federal Executive Council.
